Take Charge of Your Destiny

In sales, nothing is etched in stone. Who and what we become can often be traced back to a single moment of decision. Now is such a moment in your career.

- ✓ Will you achieve far more than you previously thought possible?
- ✓ Will you soar above the crowd?
- ✓ Will you empower yourself to achieve your goals with confidence and dignity?
- ✓ Are you ready to assume the leadership of the selling process?

Greg Nanigian & Associates, Inc. welcomes you to the Sales Mastery-President's Club---your first step in sales mastery. Through our unique and comprehensive approach to sales training, you will master the most powerful sales methodology ever developed--the Sandler Selling System®. Tested and refined through decades of front-line sales experience, Sandler training remains as radically innovative today as when it was first conceived. The Sandler Selling System® methodology will forever change the way you approach every aspect of selling, but to do so, it will require real, permanent change on your part.

Sandler Training

In 1966, David Sandler, founder of Sandler Training, pioneered an extraordinary sales training program for individual sales professionals, small and mid-sized companies, and Fortune 500 corporations. In 1983, Sandler Training expanded its impact in the marketplace by franchising its proprietary training programs. Today, the company in Owings Mills, Maryland, supports the activities of a sales training organization of more than 190 certified trainers and consultants in the United States and Canada.

What makes the Sandler Training different from other sales training companies?

Fundamentally, we provide our clients with much more than motivational "quick fix" sales seminars. The Sandler team agrees with the psychological studies that prove memory fades very quickly. During even the most inspiring seminars, and immediately following, participants "feel good" and plan to put into action the ideas they just heard. But 48 hours later, most people can only remember a few one-liners and power phrases. As a result, no permanent change takes place in their behavior or their performance.

There's a world of difference between this so-called "quick fix" training and the ongoing reinforcement training provided by Sandler Training. Reinforcement takes time, certainly more than one or two days! And it requires committed trainers and clients, working together to achieve all new levels of confidence and success.

Sandler Training has been awarded the #1 ranking for training programs in "Franchise 500" nine times since 1994. David Sandler's ideas continue to challenge and inspire even the most seasoned sales executives. And Sandler Training is dedicated to keeping our clients ahead of the curve with innovative new training programs and concepts.

"You don't have to like cold calls, you only have to make them."

Have you been through the Sales Mastery-President's Club training and, like a language, you are finding that if you don't use it, you are starting to lose it? We may have the solution - 24/7 online reinforcement training!

What Sandler Online is NOT:

- A replacement or substitute for the Sales Mastery-President's Club classroom experience.
- A replacement for coaching.

What Sandler Online IS:

- A tool that will increase the "Touch Rate" for Sandler by adding to the classroom, CD, field experience, and coaching methods of reinforcement.
- A form of accountability.
- A Sandler content and training tool for those who are involved in the Sales Process but may not be on the front line (Customer Support, Sales Engineers, Managers from other departments, and part-time representatives for example).
- A tool for remote training that you may customize with your own sales training videos.
- A tool for Managers who cannot attend Sales Mastery-President's Club on a regular basis but need to be in the loop.
- It is only for existing or former clients.

Here is what you get with a Sandler Online® License:

1. Resource Center: Hundreds of topics on sales and sales management – audio, video, pdf workbooks. In total 10,000 hours of just in time learning.
2. Course Presentations: Online university style courses. Multi-media, stunning visuals, audio, video, test your knowledge quizzes at the end of each lesson.
3. Management Dashboard: Create training paths and view detailed reports on usage and reports on test results for each person in your organization who has a Sandler Online® license.
4. Login from wherever: Office computer, laptop, mobile device, sitting outside prospect's parking lot, home, etc.
5. You may add your own content for customized training for your sales team!

Imagine arriving 10 minutes early on a 1st call (the 1st "Sandler Interview") and sitting inside your vehicle with your laptop and logging on to the Sandler Online course entitled "Up-front Contracts." Picking up Wi-Fi from the building, you spend 8 minutes going through the course, including hearing David Sandler himself coach you through how to set up an up-front contract, and then off you go into the building and up the elevator, prepared "just in time" to re-fresh all those wonderful Sandler techniques that we have taught you over the years. Pretty powerful stuff!!!

The Sales Mastery-President's Club

As a Business Owner, Senior Sales Manager, General Manager or Sales Professional, where can you go to meet others and discuss the issues we face in today's competitive environment? Who helps you solve the business issues faced by your organization?

The Sales Mastery-President's Club provides continuous, ongoing reinforcement training. Under this program, Sandler trainers provide an average of 30 hours of training monthly for a period of up to one year and, in many cases, beyond. During that time, you are able to attend as your schedule and needs dictate. Each client receives a comprehensive Sales Mastery-President's Club self-study kit to reinforce what is being taught in the workshops. Clients also get Sandler Training's bimonthly newsletter, "The Sales Mastery-President's Club Report."

Sales Mastery-President's Club is not a place. It's not a meeting. It's a dynamic learning experience featuring mutual support and on-going training. You find the best solutions to the toughest problems...you won't just learn new sales skills, you'll build new life skills.

Corporate "In-House" Programs

For larger companies, we provide customized, "in-house" training programs designed to take your sales team to the top! It's a revolutionary sales approach that already has changed the way hundreds of corporations and tens of thousands of sales professionals practice the business of selling. We focus heavily on reinforcement training ... prolonged on-site support from skilled trainers and consultants who help sales people do the difficult work of changing the sales habits of a lifetime. This is sales training from the manager's point of view. We replace quick-fix, high priced motivational speakers who fly into town to "pump your people up" with local sales consultants who are committed to your long-term success. We take the time to work with your people to master the sales skills they need to take them to the top of their profession.

Sandler Management Solutions Program

This program is designed for Presidents, Business Owners, and Managers who have direct responsibilities for recruiting, motivating, managing, directing, and leading a team of people. Sandler Management Solutions is an intensive program with participants committing to a minimum 12 months of education. The program involves a combination of monthly workshops, role playing, on-going reinforcement, and hands-on coaching. You and your team will prosper and profit as you learn to more effectively manage your people, manage your resources, and manage your bottom line profit.

Customized Sandler Training Programs

Consult your local Sandler trainer for more information regarding the customized training programs. Sandler can customize a program to fit your needs and budget.

Sales and Sales Management Assessment and Screening

There are many reasons to evaluate your existing sales force as well as potential sales candidates -- the most compelling of which is the need to grow. To succeed, you must find out which of your people can really take you to the levels you must achieve. Not personality or psychologically based (like virtually all other tests), our nationally acclaimed assessment tools identify hidden strengths and weaknesses and not only determine if sales people and managers will sell consistently, but also accurately predict whether they'll be able to execute the skills they do possess.

Strategic Customer Care Program (SCC)

The modern business landscape is strewn with the remains of high-minded quality enhancement programs that failed because of insufficient follow through. Strategic Customer Care is different. Our unique reinforcement-based program leads people through the steps they need to develop the skills that are critical for top notch customer service. This program is a must for any company that wants its customer service or support people to keep, grow and develop long-term, profitable business partnerships.

Professionally Targeting Referrals (PTR)

If you're one of those people that truly loves cold calling, this program probably isn't for you ... But if you sometimes wonder if there could be an easier way to find and close new, high-quality clients -- perhaps we can help. Professionally Targeting Referrals is a modular, reinforcement-based program that specifically guides you through the very necessary goals, tactics and strategies that are mission critical for generating the number of quality referrals you need to exceed your business goals.
